COUNTY CHEESEMAKERS TOPS AT SHOW

Two area cheesemakers have brought honour to the county for their outstanding entries in the 46th annual British Empire Dairy Show of the Central Ontario Cheese Makers' Association held in Belleville last week.

Cheesemaker of the Foxboro Cheese Factory, Ted Foley, took for the fourth time, the grand championship award of the Central Ontario Cheese Makers' Association held in Belleville last week.

Mr. Foley, who has been cheesemaker at the Foxboro plant for the last 10 years, took the prize twice in the 1960's and again in 1970. His cheese, processed last August, scored 98.25 in the competition. It was cut last Thursday at noon for sale to the public at the cheesemakers display on Front Street in Belleville.

Ivan Sine, cheesemaker of the Eldorado Cheese and Butter Co-op took three high-ranking prizes, among many others. His cheese display placed top among the four entrants. He also won the J. L. Irwin Memorial Trophy for the second highest average score in the show; the G. G. Publow Memorial Trophy, the Frank Hearns Memorial Trophy; placed second for the H. B. Fuller Company Sep-Ko Special Award, and placed third for the Pfizer Company Limited Award. Cash Awards received were: 1st place in both Sections 1 and 2 for the R. R. Cooke Awards and third place in both sections 3 and 6 for the Horan-Lally Company Ltd. Awards. His mature years (over one year old) was judged the best old cheese.

Besides the large trophy for top prize, many other awards were presented to Mr. Foley at the closing banquet last Thursday evening. They were: 1st Prize for the Merry Packing Ltd. cash award; 2nd Prize, Dye & Chemical Co. of Canada Ltd. Award; The John H. Echlin Memorial Cup; The Clarke T. Rollins, M.P.P. Hastings Award; the F. A. Morgan Memorial Trophy; 1st Prize, the Pfizer Company Ltd. Award; Sections 4 and 7, the R. R. Cooke Cash Award. The cheese show, with 155 pieces entered this year, was the largest in Canada — and possibly in all the world. Twenty-two cheesemakers from Western Ontario to Quebec entered their products in the show. All were on exhibit at the Belleville display.

Four different sizes and shapes of cheese were on display. The traditional shape, a large 90 pound cylinder, is the least popular today. More popular are the 20 and 40 pound blocks. The stilton is a 10 pound cylinder, rapidly becoming the favorite gift-giving and household use. Cheese and fresh cold sold steadily at the showroom on Thursday, Friday and until noon on Saturday.

Judges of the show were all federal department of agriculture employees. They were Morris Martin of Kemptville, T. S. Aicken of Kitchener and J. M. MacMillan of Belleville. The display was set up by Ontario Ministry of Agriculture.

Our Trip To St. Jerome, P.Q.

It was three weeks before the trip when Mr. Murphy called us. He told us we were bad in French. We laughed! Then he told us about the trip, how much it would cost and that each one of us would be staying with a family in St. Jerome, Quebec.

The students were intrigued as the speaker described his own happy and then unhappy experiences with alcohol as he gradually became addicted. They still listened as he went on to contrast the benefits of his present sober existence with the superficial joy and real misery of an alcoholic's life. This was not just a theory; it was the voice of experience; he had been there.

They still listened as he went on to contrast the benefits of his present sober existence with the superficial joy and real misery of an alcoholic's life. This was not just a theory; it was the voice of experience; he had been there.

On Sunday, November 18th the day before we left, the parents, Mr. Murphy, Mrs. Hailstone and the students had a meeting at 2:30 p.m.

Monday we met at the school, left the school at ten o'clock and drove to Belleville, where the students bought their own tickets. Then we saw a photographer talking to Mrs. Hailstone and Mr. Murphy. When the train came the photographer took our pictures.

We got on the train and left at 11:30. On the train, the steward was friendly and entertained us with funny jokes. We arrived in Montreal and were driven to St. Jerome school where we met our hosts.

On Tuesday, we got to Laurentian School that is three stories high and goes from Kindergarten to grade six. We had a French math class with Mme. Hainaut. In the afternoon we took a tour, through the Laurentian (Continued on Page 10)

THE ENERGY CRISIS
MAY BE GOOD FOR US

by Bill Smiley

It seems that in the Seventies, the whole world is lurching, as most of us do in our private lives, from one crisis to another. Crippling strikes, crippling food prices, crippling political scandals, and now the energy crisis, so-called.

A crisis may be defined as a turning point. Perhaps it's time we reached some turning points and did some turning in new directions.

What so many people of the affluent post-war years don't realize is that crises are nothing new. Every generation faces them, meets them, and resolves them, somehow.

War, depression, another war, the bomb. All these have been universal crises in this century. Beside those big ones, a hike in the price of beef is less than monumental, and even the expected energy crisis is small potatoes. (I must be hungry.)

If the energy crisis becomes more than newspaper headlines, and shortages and rationing occur, it might be the best thing that has happened to the fat-cat Western world for generations.

We are in grave danger of turning into slobs, physically, mentally, emotionally and morally. Maybe we need a good purge, in the form of a sharp cut-back in our soft way of living. Get rid of some of the fat, even if it requires a surgeon's knife.

Take a day in the life of an average family. Someone, very often the husband in these degenerate days, gets up first and turns the thermostat up to seventy. The beast in the basement starts gulping more energy.

Our friend shaves with his electric razor. He goes down and gets his orange juice out of another beast that has been burning electricity all night, producing nothing. Then he flips on two burners on the electric stove, one for coffee, one for bacon and eggs. When they're ready, he jams some bread into the electric toaster.

Then the mother stumbles down and turns the burners back on. Father drives the eight blocks to work, stinking up the environment and burning energy. The kids waffle off to a school which is probably burning far more tons of coal a day than it needs to. That school has thousands of lights which are on even on a bright day.

At home friend wife throws the laundry into an automatic washer which uses large quantities of hot water which has taken a fair amount of electricity to produce. Then it goes into the automatic dryer, run by electricity. Then she tackles the ironing, and we all know what heats an iron in this day.

She decides to wash her hair. More hot water. Then she sits under the electric dryer with fresh coffee made on the stove burner. At this time of year, probably half the lights in the house are on, merrily chewing up the watts.

And so it goes, right across the land, all day long. The television set burns juice far into the night. Advertising signs pop on and eat more juice. Industry belches its wastes and burns energy with a lavish hand.

Right now, in our kitchen, the electric oven is glowing red. It will be for the next two hours. Know what's in it? One large potato, being baked.

Multiply the juice being consumed by this one family by about five million in Canada alone and I think you'll agree that we're a pretty extravagant, even sluttish lot, when it comes to being prodigal with natural resources that are going to be exhausted and can never be replaced.

And I haven't even mentioned such ridiculousities as electric tooth-brushes and electric carving knives.

Don't get me wrong. I'm no Spartan. I'll drive to work rather than walk. And leave that great hulking, rusting monster, that required so much energy to be built and burns up so much more, sitting in the parking lot all day.

The point is, I could walk to work, and it wouldn't hurt me. In fact, it would be jolly good for me.

And I don't expect my wife to get out the scrub-board and wash her hair in rain-water. But it might be jolly good for her, if she had to. Women, and men, have too much time these days to sit around and worry about their nerves.

Our fairly immediate ancestors didn't have time for nerves and ulcers. They didn't need pick-up pills to get going. There was no alternative to just getting going.

They didn't need three martinis to whet their appetites. They were just plain hungry. Nor did they need sleeping pills to get off at night. They were just plain pooped.

I'm not scared of an energy crisis. It might even be interesting. Anyway, I have my own energy crisis every day, when the alarm goes off at 7:15. That's what I call a real crisis.

During 50 Years Of Licensing, Selling,
P. H. Nayler Sees Auto Come Of Age

(by Gene McGuirk)

Also in court 36 charges of "Break and Enter" were heard against one male subject. These were laid this past summer, in connection with complaints of cottages being broken into. Eighteen of the charges were withdrawn in court and the other eighteen will be tried by County Judge in Belleville at a later date.

A Madoc township man has been charged with "Drive while Prohibited" and "Breach of Probation" following a complaint received. His court order specified that he was to stay away from a certain residence and he failed to do so.

A Marmora youth has also been charged with "Breach of Probation". The Provincial Judge had set a curfew time for the youth and he failed to be at his residence before that time.

For, since the early 1920s, Mr. Nayler has been the operator of the provincial government's licensing bureau, in Madoc.

"I've given the driving tests to two or three generations in some families," he said in a recent interview.

"I remember when it cost only one dollar to get a driver's licence," he said. "That included the test and everything."

Now, he explained, the test alone costs eight dollars. And if you fail and have to take it again, that's another eight.

Over and above that, the licence itself costs three dollars. One of these three dollars, he noted, goes into the government's unsatisfied judgement insurance fund.

Even before Mr. Nayler got into the licensing business, though, he was already involved with automobiles. From 1919 until 1957, he held the General Motors franchise in Madoc.

This was why he constructed the building from which he has operated for 54 years. Originally it was a garage.

"I built it when I got back from overseas," said the First World War veteran who served with the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery from Kingston.

"It wasn't easy," he recalled. "When I got back all I had was my pay from the service which was about $265. I think. But I had some good friends who would lend me money and he said, "Then he went to war where he 'saw too much' that he doesn't care to remember."

Madoc itself, he said, hasn't changed much since he started retailing cars. The town had raised wooden sidewalks and unpaved streets then, most people still used horse-drawn vehicles, but the size and shape of the town were not much different, he recalled.

Food prices were low enough in those days that everyone, even if they weren't rich, could eat well. "We had nine children in my family, and with my mother and father that made eleven. But we were always bringing other kids home for dinner, sometimes four or five of them, and there was always enough to eat. Can you imagine that happening nowadays?"

He started his working life in 1903 with the Grand Trunk Railroad in Belleville working a ten-hour day on the giant turntable for 50 cents. Later, at the same rate, he worked five years in the railroad machine shop. From there he graduated to train fireman, usually working the Belleville to Brockville run and getting paid at a per-mile rate he has long familiar.

Tracing his memory back over the decades, Mr. Nayler can see many things which have changed and some which have not.

In his youth when many families still used wood as their basic heating fuel, he recalled cutting it in the bush at a rate of 50 cents a cord for softwood and 75 cents a cord for hard. Recently, he said, a member of his family paid $20 in Belleville for half a cord of wood, mostly soft.

It was in the 1920s that people started buying cars in significant numbers, he said.

"I remember then I would sell a Chev sedan for $675; a coupe cost $650." Gasoline, priced around 20 cents per gallon, was hand-pumped from large drums inside his dealership and carried to waiting cars outside.

In the wintertime car owners got out their cutters and put their autos in storage. "I used to store 40 or 50 cars in this building during the winter, both downstairs and upstairs. I'd take the wheels off so there wouldn't be any pressure on the tires, put the cars up on blocks, and put large paper envelopes over the whole car."

"I guess you could say that I've seen the automobile come of age." "And I've seen a lot of casualties too. There used to be about 40 different makes of cars. Now there are really three or four."

Considering the current

"energy crisis", Mr. Nayler allows the possibility that he may even see the end of the automobile as he has known it.

CARDS OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my kind neighbours, friends and relatives for all the many, many gifts and deeds of kindness prior to my departure to Florida as I may not reply to all Christmas greetings this year. However, I will try to send greeting from there early in '74.

Sincerely,
Gladys Bailey.
48-1p

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to Cooper and Remington community for the money purse received following our recent wedding.

Bonnie & Bruce Askey.

Mrs. Mabel Wiggins and family would like to express their sincere thanks for the visits, flowers, cards, and donations during their recent bereavement. Such kindnesses shown during the loss of a dear husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, Frederick G. Wiggins (Fred), are greatly appreciated and will always be remembered.

May we say a special thank you to Dr. Derry, Dr. Dosaj, Reverend Heard, the Rev. Ken Thompson and the MacKenzie Funeral Home.

DEATH NOTICE

CROUCH, Helen Ruth (Coveney) — Suddenly in an automobile accident at Newmarket, Sunday, December 2, 1973. Helen Ruth Crouch, wife of Paul Crouch, Toronto, and dear daughter of Mrs. Benson French of Crookston and the late Joseph Clio Coveney, dear sister of Robert C. Coveney, Tweed, in her 37th year. Cremation in Toronto, Tuesday, December 4th. Donations in memory to Ontario Society for Crippled Children may be made at the Bush Funeral Home, Tweed.

ARMSTRONG, Herbert Rodger — At the Toronto General Hospital on Tuesday, November 27th, 1973, Rod Armstrong, 951 D'Arcy St., Cobourg, Ontario in his 52nd year. Beloved husband of Geneva Fern Holmes, (formerly of R.R. #3, Madoc), dear father of Alex and Janet of Toronto and Catherine (predeceased), dear brother of Margaret and Esther (Mrs. J. ST. JOHN'S
A.C.W.

St. John's A.C.W. held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Elvi Brownson. The president Lou Phillips welcomed all present. Mrs. Kay Thompson had the opening prayers and Mrs. Alma Cotton read the scripture reading. In our prayers for the sick we remembered all those who were ill in the Madoc Area.

The minutes from the last meeting were read and approved by the president.

The social report showed a lot of illness in the parish. These people are remembered with prayers, cards, flowers, fruit baskets and visits.

A letter from our Rector Rev. Thompson was read, thanking the ladies for all their hard work & effort, especially relating to the Annual A.C.W. Deaneary, of which we were the hosts. Our president also thanked the ladies for their continued support and help.

The program for the evening was listening to a record called, "Still Talking" by Don Lorne. Mr. Lorne visits different High Schools and Institutions giving talks to the teenagers on the generation gap, drugs, alcohol, smoking, and fashion. He does this in a very comical way. A discussion followed on the various problems that teenagers face today.

The next meeting will be held on December 11th, in the Parish Hall. This will be the Xmas meeting and is open to all ladies in the Parish. There will be an exchange of gifts and a pot luck dinner.

The meeting closed with prayer. The hostess served lunch and a time of fellowship followed.

The annual convention of the Central Ontario Cheesemakers' Association is held in conjunction with the show. Sessions were held at the Sun Valley Motor Inn last Wednesday and Thursday, with a wind-up banquet and dance Thursday night at Club Canara in Belleville.

On hand at the convention promoting milk for the Ontario Milk Marketing Board was Miss Heather Innes, Ontario Dairy Princess.

At the closing banquet, comments of the dignitaries at the head table showed a great pride in the achievements of our County Cheese producers.

First to offer her congratulations to the Association for a successful show on behalf of the City of Belleville was Major Robin Jeffrey, who said she hopes that they "continue until eternity to produce cheese." Following this, Warden Horace Casey gave a congratulatory message.

Member of Parliament for Hastings, Mr. Clark Rollins brought greetings from the Provincial government and expressed a personal pride in the achievements of the dairy producers of this County. He

Car Rolls, Damages $900

A twenty-seven-year-old Madoc Township man escaped with only minor cuts when the 1972 Buick he was driving went off the road near Eldorado early Saturday morning.

Robert Keith Curtis, of R.R. #1, Madoc, while northbound on Highway 62, lost control of the vehicle 500 feet north of the CNR crossing at Eldorado, and went into the east ditch, where the car rolled over. The mishap occurred at approximately 3:00 a.m. An unidentified passenger in the car also escaped uninjured.

Constable Robert Bonter of the Madoc Detachment, Ontario Provincial Police, who was the investigating officer, has charged the driver under Section 83 of the Highway Traffic Act. Damages to the vehicle were estimated at $900.

FRIENDLY HINTS

RINGWORM CAN BE A WINTER PROBLEM

Upon the first sign of ringworm in cattle, it is a good idea to immediately isolate the animal from the rest of the herd, if possible. The disease is readily transmitted from animal to animal and from animal to man, by direct or indirect contact. Ringworm is most commonly caused by a fungus.

Although cattle of all ages are susceptible, the disease is most common in calves. Also, it is more commonly seen during the winter months in stalled animals, but may occur at any time.

How Do You Recognize Ringworm

After an incubation period of two to four weeks, the hair in the infected area breaks off or falls out. After two to three months, thick scabs may appear. In the early stages the surface below the crust is moist. In older lesions the scab becomes detached and a small circular, hairless area may be the only detachable sign. Likely areas of infection include the skin around the eyes, ears, muzzle and neck; but few areas escape infection if the condition is left untreated.

How To Treat It

Ringworm usually responds to local application of fungicidal drugs when the thick crusts are first removed with a stiff brush and mild soap.

Persistent treatment may be required. Daily applications of a mixture of equal parts tincture of iodine and glycerin or a 20 per cent of sodium caprylate to the lesion until it disappears is often effective. If animals do not respond to treatment call your veterinarian.

The best way to avoid ringworm in cattle is a good hygiene and good sanitation program.

No one heard
They had no ears
No one cried
They had no tears
No one spoke
They had no voice
Everyone died
They had no choice
No one walked
They had no legs
Their arms were Turned to wooden pegs
Their hearts were Turned to chunks of stones
Rubber had Replaced their bones.

Society
Is almost done
Gone our senses
Gone the sun
Where will it end
Will anybody
Wave goodbye?

50 YEARS AGO
DECEMBER 5, 1923

Fred Davis, of Wellington, has launched a new enterprise at Wellington — a coon farm and expects to make it a very successful venture. Already he has erected kennels and has put a considerable sum of money in this business. Recently he was in New York city and environs and learned of the successful farming of coons there. Coon farms require a considerable stream of land.

Violent and sudden deaths in Toronto for the first 11 months of the year showed an increase over the whole of 1922. Of the 509 deaths in Toronto since January 1, 1923, 310 have been sudden or violent. Motor cars have killed 45 persons and 5 have been murdered. The list for the 11 months is as follows: Asphyxiations 30, automobiles 45, burned 22, falls 19, drank poison 6, shot 8, street cars 8, suocid 13, alcohol 12, machinery 3, electrocuted 4, drowned 6, murdered 5, hanged 3, stabbed 1, coal gas 1, smothered 1, crushed 1, train 5, choked to death 1, and a lad killed by wire stuck in his head. The above death report in Toronto for the first eleven months of this year is startling and there must be a remedy within human control. Every accident is a result of a mistake or mistakes made by some one and if these could be traced back to their real source it would be found to be due to lack of self-control and lack of self-control can be traced to lack of obedience. The inability of parents, teachers and others to enforce obedience has led to the inability of the individual to control himself. Many years ago Goldwin Smith spoke of this condition among young Canadians. It manifests itself among children in their relations to their parents. How few children are willing to acknowledge the authority which parents should exercise over them: This can be readily shown by the words "Old Man," "The Boss," "The Governor," and such like phrases which young Canadians apply to their fathers and the parents in their turn are unwilling to allow teachers to exercise proper discipline over their pupils and the result is that Canadian youth, never having been trained to obedience, are unable to discipline themselves and the results are seen in just such conditions as are reported in the city of Toronto and other places. You cannot improve on the instruction to parents: "Train up a child in the way in which he should go." All the laws and regulations enacted by legislative bodies, together with all the penalties attached, is not the remedy.

Six Stirling youths were given suspended sentence on account of their youth on entering into bonds of $200 each, and they must pay Rev. Elijah Bundo $100.00, and in addition all costs of the case, as the aftermath of the recent coat of tar and feathers administered to Bundo by them. Six boys came up under a charge of assault although W. C. Mikel, K.C., of Belleville, private counsel for Bundo, wished to withdraw the charge of assault, so as to protect Bundo's civil remedies. This, however, the Crown would not consent to and this trial will be the final disposal of the affair.

The readers of the Review have followed the career of Queen College Rugby team from the time they stood on the lowest rung of the Rugby football ladder until they stood on the third rung from the top, when they won the intercollegiate Championship, then climbed on the second, when they won the Eastern Provincial Championship and now having won the Championship of all Canada they occupy the Communication — the Editor. The North Hastings Review, Dear Sir: As a citizen of Madoc, I think the present Council should be commended for the splendid progress and their untiring efforts in improving living conditions in the Village. They have made numerous improvements such as: parking lot, garbage collection, new jail with sanitary conditions, cement walks in various sections, those blinkers as a safety measure in traffic, an engine for the pumper, 550 ft. of new hose, and the park which was frequented by children during the intense heat last summer. I understand this was done without any additional burden on the taxpayer. Now they are about to install a water system which is so badly needed from a health standpoint, as with so much concentrated filth we cannot expect to have water fit for domestic use and this has been proven by tests. Lack of adequate water supply is felt very keenly here in connection with fire protection, especially when our local creek is dry, and then, the odour of filth is so pronounced "people dread coming in reach of the bridge." A meeting of the members of the Madoc Community Club was held in the Council Chambers on Tuesday evening with former President, Ted Nayler, in the chair. After a long discussion it was decided to turn about $70.00 which the Club had in the bank over to the Legion Building Fund. The piano which has been used by the Kiwanis Club for the past year, is to be loaned to the Madoc Public School Board for use in the school. The meeting then appointed Reeve Jack Kincaid as Chairman, when the following officers were elected: President, C. I. Ross, Secretary, Percy Gunn, and Treasurer, T. H. Rupert.

That the ratepayers of Madoc Village are interested in municipal affairs is indicated by the large number who attended the nomination meeting held in the Town Hall last Friday night. Those present numbering nearly 150, including several women. Following the official nomination, Clerk Fred Curry acted as Chairman for a meeting in which all nominated were given an opportunity to speak. Reeve Jack Kincaid was given an acclamation and after thanking the electors for the honor accorded him, gave a short address, referring to County Council affairs and the local waterworks. He was elected chairman of the County Publicity Committee. P.H. Nayler and T. H. Rupert representing the Hydro Commission reviewed the work that had been done by the Commission during the past year. There were six nominations for School Trustees. Percy Derry and W. Hart were nominated, besides the following, who are standing for election. W. Hart, a member of the Board stated that he didn't intend to qualify again as did Percy Derry. Ken West and Robert McCoy spoke briefly, stating that they had enjoyed working on the Board, but were not prepared to state whether they intended qualifying or not. Both have since qualified. Jack Baker, Kenneth Holmes and Ernie Lough were nominated and are seeking office. Only five were nominated for council. Percy Derry, who stated that he would decide later, if he intended qualifying. Philip Rivers, Chairman of Streets, was the first of this year's Council to speak. Judson McGowan, Chairman of Sidewalks was the next speaker. Wesley Hulin, Chairman of Property spoke next and Murray Smith, Chairman of Finance and Fire Protection, was the last Councillor to speak.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Richardson will be at home to their friends on Sunday, December 11th, two to five and seven to ten p.m., it being the occasion of their forty-eighth wedding anniversary.

Birth — Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moon (nee Irene West), Madoc, are happy to announce the birth of their son, Gary Allan, at Belleville General Hospital, on Friday, November 25th, 1949.

Wedding — On Saturday afternoon, November 26th, Rev. Alfred Poulter officiated at the marriage of Roger Joseph Levine, of Ottawa, and Helen Marjorie Perry, of Minden. The wedding took place at the United Church parsonage at Madoc. The bride and groom will live in Minden where the groom has a position with the Hydro Electric Co.

15 YEARS AGO
December 11, 1958

The Madoc Santa Claus Parade, sponsored by the Madoc and District Chamber of Commerce was held on Saturday afternoon last. As usual, this event attracted a large crowd to the village with about 1,100 youngsters receiving gifts of candy. In the morning the Village children attended a free movie in the Empire Theatre and following the parade the children from out-of-town were guests of the Chamber at the theatre. This year's parade was headed by Miss Dorothy Dickey's Drum Majorettes, of Belleville, and the Madoc High School Bugle Band. The parade was composed of decorated floats, character costumes, army personnel, saddle horses, Madoc District Band, 1959 new decorated cars and last but not of least importance, the Chamber of Commerce float carrying Santa Claus and drawn by two teams of black horses. Those taking part in the parade were 'B' Coy, Hastings & Prince Edward Regiment, Canadian Tire, Kincaid Bros., Madoc Creamery, Devolin's Grocery, Bill Cook Wholesale, Bristol Builders' Supplies, Kiwanis Club, Madoc Fire Department, High School Cheer Leaders, Tommy Deline with his Toronto Star Float, Pigden Motors, Derry's Garage, Armstrong Bros., Brett's Garage, Nickle's Motors and saddle horses ridden by Charles Johnston, Pat Kincaid and Ron Stewart. Pigden's P.A. system was on hand and Parade Commentator Ken Holmes kept the crowd informed as to what was taking place. Senator George White on behalf of the Chamber welcomed those present to the village and extended Season's Greetings to all.

The custodian of enemy property hopes to mail $2,000.00 worth of cheques by January 20 to Canadians who were maltreated prisoners in World War II. K. W. Wright, Ottawa, chairman of the custodian's board of administration, said Friday that 2,002 cheques were mailed up to Friday, about 25 per cent of the total. He said "hundreds" of letters have been received asking about the cheques but that a lot of work has been necessary in tracking down addresses, deaths and other information. The cheques represent a bonus payment of 50 per cent, authorized October 23. The money derives from assets of belligerent enemy property seized by the Government during the first war and placed in the hands of the Finance Department as war claims fund. Initial payments to maltreated prisoners of war have been going on for four or five years. Where a recipient has died the Treasury Board decides who will get the bonus payment.

At the final meeting of 1958 Deloro Village Council, Friday, December 5th, a motion was passed thanking Reeve Mr. C. H. Buskard for his valued leadership and understanding of village matters. Mr. and Mrs. Buskard are leaving on an extended tour of such like phrases which young Canadians apply to their fathers and the parents in their turn are unwilling to allow teachers to exercise proper discipline over their pupils and the result is that Canadian youth, never having been trained to obedience, are unable to discipline themselves and the results are seen in just such conditions as are reported in the city of Toronto and other places. You cannot improve on the instruction to parents: "Train up a child in the way in which he should go." All the laws and regulations enacted by legislative bodies, together with all the penalties attached, is not the remedy.

Hungry thieves forced their way into the R. B. Hamilton store at Foxboro, Monday night, and got away with a still undetermined amount of petty cash. They also made off with a roll of smoked ham. Filing cabinets in the store office were ransacked apparently in search of cash. A small amount of store money in silver was taken while funds of the Foxboro Hunt Club also disappeared.

Communication — the Editor. The North Hastings Review, Dear Sir: As a citizen of Madoc, I think the present Council should be commended for the splendid progress and their untiring efforts in improving living conditions in the Village. They have made numerous improvements such as: parking lot, garbage collection, new jail with sanitary conditions, cement walks in various sections, those blinkers as a safety measure in traffic, an engine for the pumper, 550 ft. of new hose, and the park which was frequented by children during the intense heat last summer. I understand this was done without any additional burden on the taxpayer. Now they are about to install a water system which is so badly needed from a health standpoint, as with so much concentrated filth we cannot expect to have water fit for domestic use and this has been proven by tests. Lack of adequate water supply is felt very keenly here in connection with fire protection, especially when our local creek is dry, and then, the odour of filth is so pronounced "people dread coming in reach of the bridge." To my mind the Reeve and those young men who are at our service should get our full support in making Madoc a better place to live. Taxpayer.

The happiest Christmas Party in the whole parade - Madoc Senior Citizens.

Children really love a parade.

NOTICE

Next week's issue, Wednesday, December 19th, will be our annual Christmas edition.

All persons and businesses wishing to publish greetings in that issue are requested to come into this office on or before Friday, December 14th, to place the order.

We have a new catalogue for this year and will be placing the choice to be made on a first-come basis.

Former Madocer Elected

Word was received this week that a former Reeve of Madoc, Mr. Jack Kincaid, who is now Reeve of Hagerville, has proven his popularity among the people where he now resides by again being successful in an election.

Heading the poll for Area Councillor, Mr. Kincaid took the win by over 100 votes, defeating his closest opponent 556 to 447.

It is hoped that we will have more on this for next week's paper.

GRANT APPROVED

Clarke T. Rollins, M.P.P. Hastings, announced this week that he has been advised by The Honourable Claude F. Bennett, Minister of Industry and Tourism that the Highlands of Hastings Regional Tourist Council have been granted $7,184.91 in support of the Council's programs of travel information, promotion and tourism development for the Highlands of Hastings area.

SANTA CLAUS PARADE WAS MADOC'S BIGGEST

(By Crichton Harrop)
At 5:30 a.m. on Saturday, Verne Pegg shook himself awake and headed up to Toni's Flower Shop. He slipped inside, and yelled in fright as he bumped into an eight-foot rabbit. This awoke Gavin and Toni Adams, and parade day was begun. There were still many things to be done - floats to be completed, position stakes to be hammered in along the streets, headquarters to be set up, and furniture to be moved.

In another part of town, Crichton Harrop roused his complaining body, and set off on his duties. He went over and woke up Bill Taylor and his family so that the Anglican Church float could be completed. Then he went over and joined Toni and Gavin Adams for the morning's fun and games.

At 10:00 a.m. Verne Pegg had set up his headquarters at Bert Jones' auto dealership, and messages were being passed back and forth by walkie talkie as the parade organizers put the finishing touches on the details.

Floats started to be put into position at 10:30 and by 1:45 all the floats were lined up correctly. At 2:01 Verne and Allan Armstrong started the signal that the parade was rolling. Downtown over 1,000 people awaited the parade. Less than five minutes after the police car started moving with Allan aboard, Terry Pidgeon and Grant Ketcheson started to inform the crowd about Madoc's biggest, ever-parade.

Suddenly, there was an emergency - the parade of 50 floats was too big for the route chosen. With Mary Pidgeon acting as radio intermediary between Crichton Harrop, high atop a building, and Allan in the police car, a decision was reached to take the parade along St. Lawrence St. East one more block, and then over Embury's hill. The decision was right. The head of the parade did not catch up with the tail. With the tail of the parade barely past the four corners, the head reappeared up Durham Street. The parade went very smoothly to its conclusion at 3:15.

After the parade, bedlam broke loose. Santa was swamped with children at his workshop beautifully decorated by Bob Hudson. Ray Burris and others handed out candy to the children.

Many children attended the movies at the public school, while their parents went shopping. It seemed to this writer that there were more people in the stores last Saturday than usual.

Most of the participants in the parade went over to C.H.S.S. afterwards for a free hot dog and a drink. Crichton Harrop climbed up on a chair and thanked everyone for the help in making the 1973 Santa Claus Parade the biggest and best that Madoc has ever seen.

After greeting hundreds of children, Santa went over to the nursing home to see all the nurses and patients there. By then, poor old Santa was extremely tired, but still game.

After the parade a party was held at the Kiwanis Centre for the Brownies, Cubs and Scouts. Heather Kirkwood thanked the Kiwanis for sponsoring the girls Scouts and Brownies this year. Jerry Rollins, first vice-president of the Kiwanis, replied that they were very proud to sponsor these organizations.

When a parade of this magnitude is organized, there are many people you have to thank. This writer hopes that he got everyone's name right. The biggest thanks of all should go to Jim Watson who was el-chief until last Wednesday, when illness struck him down. Because of Jim's illness everyone on the committee pulled together to make sure that any detail that Jim had not had time to look at was dealt with before there was a crisis. Jim attended the parade with his father. We all hope he gets well soon.

All the members of each of the sub-committees (finance, floats, bands, publicity, tourist booth) should be thanked. Ray Burris saw to it that the money continued to flow in. Bob Hawley, Larry Stickwood and Allan Armstrong made sure that the bands would appear on schedule. Gavin Adams, Toni Adams, and Verne Pegg did a great job creating floats, making sure that floats were created, and running the parade after Jim's sudden collapse. Bob Hudson did a beautiful job decorating the tourist office ready for Santa's visit. Those who decorated the streets that sunny Sunday made the town Christmasy, despite the lack of snow.

In any parade there are always lots of people who do things for a parade, but who are never mentioned. I hope that I've got them all here. Thanks go to the following: Brenda Hudson and her art classes for creating lovely signs for the sponsors of the O.F.Y. floats; Paul Jones for being very good at running messages, hammering in stakes, and bringing floats up; Bert Jones, a tip of the hat, for giving the parade excellent publicity on the radio, and allowing his property to be used by floats; Kate Kincaid and her staff for providing excellent food and hospitality for the parade participants.

Charles Gordon and John Murphy and staff for entertaining the children with movies while their parents went shopping; Terry, Gord and Mary Pidgeon, who relayed messages back and forth all day long by walkie-talkies they lent the parade officials; the O.P.P., our boys in blue, who led and followed the parade, controlled traffic, and handed out candy to the children; the C.H.S.S. cadet corps who moved chairs, set up floats, and controlled traffic with courtesy; Terry Pidgeon and Grant Ketcheson who provided continuous patter about each float as it went by; the Madoc Boy Scouts, the best cross-country runners around; Marmora and Tweed for providing floats - a courtesy. Madoc must return sometime soon; Maurice Goulet for allowing this writer to drive on and on; Aileen Brooks who

STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT FURTHERING EDUCATION

On Wednesday, December 5, the Senior students of C.H.S.S. had a chance to meet and talk to three University professors. These professors were: Mr. Brillinger from Waterloo University, Mr. Edwards from Trent University, and Mr. Crozier from Trent University.

The students presented questions on such topics as:

social life; food; living quarters; types of classes; freedom of choice; and other topics, which covered an hour and twenty minutes.

After school the teaching staff were able to ask questions and get answers to problems concerning what they could do a better job of preparing the students who go to university.

A number of interested area residents turned out at the Madoc Public School last Thursday evening to view explanatory maps and to discuss with members of the Hastings County Planning Board the Official Plan which the County Council is considering adopting.

The meeting was of particular interest to people of the Townships of ElzEVir, Grims-thorpe, Madoc and Marmora and the Villages of Deloro, Madoc and Marmora.

Mrs. Mary Moroz, Project Planner for Totten, Sims, Hubicki Associates Limited, Mr. Niall Carney, the Planning Director, and members of the Board Felix Brown of Bangor, Wicklow & McClure, Cecil

Woods of Madoc Township and T. C. Barton of Madoc Village were the panel to whom the questions were delivered from the floor, after a brief explanatory comment on the large maps on the wall outlining the various facets of the Official Plan by Mrs. Moroz.

Mrs. Moroz explained that the Plan is necessary to ensure orderly and proper development within the County in future years. The Planning Board has established the pattern which development within the Hastings Planning area should follow during the period 1974 to 1991.

However, the Plan is by no means final. The Board will continue to hold meetings similar to the one held here last week, and will review the questions raised at these meetings and then make a final review of the plan before it is turned over to County Council. In an effort to seek out any errors that may have occurred, copies of the Plan have been left in all the municipal offices and public libraries for the people to examine. Any disapprovals should be pointed out to the municipal council, which will, in turn, make the recommendation to the Planning Board. When the Board is satisfied that nothing has been overlooked, they will submit it to County Council for approval. From there, it will go on the Provincial Government, where it will be thoroughly studied for final approval. The final approval must suit the County, the Province and the Federal government. It does not become official as a By-Law until the Minister signs it, and even then, it may still be amended. It was pointed out that the approval at the provincial level is necessary because there may be some interests (example, future road development) of which the Planning Board is not aware — and in that case, there would have to be some compromising done.

However, at the County level, the Plan is given a first, second and third reading, after which printed copies will be mailed out to every ratepayer, who has 14 days to state any objection to the Clerk. Council will then study the complaints and make alterations as they see fit. Results of this would then be sent to the Ontario Municipal Board which would call a hearing in the municipality and make a decision from that.

Anyone who was unable to attend this meeting because of other activities the same night, is advised to go to the similar public meeting planned for January 9th in the Village of Tweed to view and discuss the Plan.

Brownies, Cubs & Scouts Involved In Parade

The 1st and 2nd Madoc Brownies spent a very busy day on Saturday, beginning with the Santa Claus parade. On the main float representing Brownies, Cubs & Scouts, twelve Brownies sat around a giant toadstool, a must to all "Brownie Rings". The remaining Brownies, sitting or kneeling in a large Christmas package, followed behind singing carols.

After the parade, to warm up they jogged to the High School where they were served refreshments, compliments of the Madoc Chamber of Commerce.

That evening at the Kiwanis Centre together with the Scouts & Cubs a Family Christmas Party was held. After a group carols session accompanied by Miss Nicola Thompson at the piano, First Pack led off the entertainment by presenting some "Thoughts of Christmas", followed by "Twelve Days of Christmas" and a "Merry Christmas" round. Second Pack were third on the program with a Nativity Scene. Brownies, dressed as angels and shepherds, sang appropriate carols and Brown Owl Matchett read the Christmas Story.

On behalf of the Legion Captain Thompson presented the Scouts with a certificate for helping with the Poppy Drive and a cheque to the group. The Scout part of the program took the form of a skit. Location: North Pole, Jet Rental Service, Time: December 24th. Five planes lined up in the show room when Santa's helpers came in and asked for a plane. After they looked at five planes, which were too small, they came to a 747 Jumbo, but they could not get it going, so they asked for help of the Brownie, Cub and Scout Leaders. After they had all the east of here.

Glen, Winston and Bill Baker each received a certificate for free dinners for two when they arrived there by snowmobile on Sunday evening. December 9th.

This is the fourth year in a row that the Bakers have been the first snowmobilers to visit the restaurant and to receive the usual gift.

On Friday December 15th, at 7 p.m. there will be Christmas films shown at the library. The films will then discontinue until the new year.

LIBRARY NEWS

New books at the public library are: Sleep in the Woods - Dorothy Eden; Log Cabin Noble - Van Wyck Mason; The Plum Thicket - Janice Holt Giles; Kamakura - Anne Hebert; The Taking of Pelham - John Godey: The Apparition - Ramona Stewart; Yet She Must Die - Sara Woods; Drifting Home - Pierre Burton; The Broken Snare - R. D. Symons; Blackberry Winter - Margaret Mead.

The leaders would like to thank all those who participated in any way to make the day more enjoyable for our Brownies, Cubs and Scouts.

A busy term is nearing completion for our 40 little people. The children in our day care centre are busy preparing paper chain decorations for our tree, mailing letters to Santa's mailbox and anxiously awaiting party week. Excitement is mounting and the lists of requests so far submitted for Santa's approval is unbelievably long and includes several tractors, dolls, a kitten, and a baby sister! The grade eleven girls, who are responsible for the programme and care of our preschoolers, have had lively experiences in this section of their family life and child care course. Carolyn Thoms is here seen discussing Christmas with the Thursday group. The channel 4 "insight" programme on Sunday, December 16th will feature a special presentation from our Day Care Centre and a taste for the viewers of a typically hectic afternoon with fifteen 3 and 4 year olds.

Madoc Couple Celebrate 49th Anniversary

A Madoc couple were recently honoured at a surprise party given by their family on the occasion of their 49th wedding anniversary, which they celebrated on Monday, November 26th.

The party for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whiteman of 25 Marmora Street, took place at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl (Bev) Derry on the Saturday evening preceding their anniversary, November 24th.

Lovely bouquets of flowers and an anniversary cake were presented to the couple.

Present for the occasion were Mrs. Jack Scrutton and Miss Valerie Sherrow, both of Madoc, and the following sons and their wives: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whiteman and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Whiteman, all of Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Whiteman of Madoc. Also present was a granddaughter, Mrs. Ken VanVolkenburg, accompanied by her husband, from Belleville and other grandchildren, for a total of 24 in attendance.

Three of the couple's children were unable to attend, but sent congratulatory messages and flowers. They are, Mr. and Mrs. Reg Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Carman Whiteman and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whiteman, all of St. Catharines.

DO THEY EVER GROW UP?

by Bill Smiley

Perhaps someone who has gone the whole course can tell me when one's children stop depending on their parents when it comes to the clutch.

Is it in their forties, fifties, sixties? Certainly it is not in their twenties.

Recently, we received a note from our son Hugh, to tell us he was taking some holidays and would be home for a few days' visit.

I thought, "Good. He's saved some money and won't arrive broke, as usual." He had.

Some days later, in a telephone conversation with daughter Kim, we learned that Hugh had dropped in to see her, and had drifted off, muttering something about going to Chicago. That is a slightly roundabout way of putting it to our place.

And a few days later there was a collect call from Houston, Texas. You guessed it. Hugh, flat broke. Could we wire him money for bus fare to get home?

He was crafty enough to call when I was at work. I would probably have refused the collect call, and regretted it later. Or I'd have shouted, "No, I will not send you the price of one serving of Kentucky fried chicken," and slammed up the receiver.

But he sweet-talked his mother for five minutes before he popped the question. She was not only astounded but taken aback and didn't think quickly enough to tell him we were just off to Florida or the west coast or anywhere.

She waffled a bit, and eventually said she'd see what his Dad said but not to expect anything. He sighed with relief and told her where to send the money.

I came home from work on a Friday after a hard week. All I wanted was to get my shoes off, have a quiet drink before dinner, and read the latest goodies about the energy crisis.

And all I got was a family crisis, a scramble to the bank, and a dash to get to the telegraph office before it closed for the weekend.

At first I stood my ground. Not a penny. Let him starve in Houston. At least he won't freeze to death (he'd airy told his

Dear Madam:

This is a note of appreciation from one who might have had his weekend spoiled, but for the help of some of your young people.

While driving in Madoc sometime past midnight Friday, a supporting bolt sheared off the trailer. I was towing, completely disabling it.

Before I could figure out what to do, several fellows stopped their car and began to help, first unloading and tipping up the trailer. They were joined by others, who pitched in and had me mobile in a very short time. They would accept no payment for their effort.

Don't knock your teenagers, people of Madoc. They're tops in my book.

Young hitchhikers, watch for me. You'll not be left behind again.

Eldorado U.C.W.
Christmas Tea

On November 28th, Eldorado United Church Women held their Christmas Tea and Bake Sale. The artistry of the decorating committee in the newly decorated Sunday School room with pine, poinsettias and holly chain made an interesting setting for the occasion.

Despite the inclement autumn weather it was a lovely afternoon. Courageous people came from as far as White Lake and Zion, also from Queensboro, Hazards, Copper, Madoc, and Bannockburn, helping to make it an enjoyable and worthwhile day.

mother it was 90 degrees down there.)

And she agreed with me. "He doesn't deserve a cent. He was told he was never to do that again. Ungrateful young pup. Why doesn't he hitchhike home?"

"Well," I said, "some of those southern states are pretty tough on hitchhikers. Throw them in jail for a month."

I could just see her thinking of her first-born slaving on a Georgia chain-gang or something of the sort. After a heated half-hour, we agreed that money isn't everything, that you can't buy it with you, that he's the only son we have, that it would be nice to see him, and that I'd better hustle if I wanted to get to the bank in time.

It cost me about $115, counting the bus fare and grub to get home, the cost of the collect call, and the charge for sending the money.

That's what I call sending good money after good. Of course, Hugh wouldn't dream of accepting a gift. It was strictly a loan. According to his figures, he now owes me $380.00, without interest, and will have the whole thing paid off any time now. According to my figures, he owes me $880.46, at eight per cent interest, and he'll never pay it off.

This has been happening to me for years. First, the kids go to their mother, and soften her up. Then she comes to me, and softens me up. Then I go back to the kids and practically apologize for being so slow with the loot.

Of course, I reason, Hugh's only a kid. Practically a baby. He won't be twenty-seven until July. You can't expect him, at that tender age, to know enough to SAVE SOME MONEY FOR BUS FARE HOME!

But that other kid. She's a different matter. She's almost a mother. And she pulled a swift on us this week. Another collect call, on Sunday. Nice to hear her. Asked how big the tummy was. All very matey and maternal.

Then came the punch line. Don, her husband, was on the way up from the city with their cat, to put in our care. He had to hitch-hike because he couldn't bring the cat on a bus. Her mother nearly blew a cork. The danged cat isn't trained.

So we have two additions to the household this week. Two fat cats. One in the back yard, yowling to get in. The other watching TV, sleeping till noon, and waiting to put the bite on me for more bus fare back to his job in Quebec.

I shoulda been a cranky old bachelor.

50 YEARS AGO
December 12, 1923

On Monday evening about eleven o'clock a car from Belleville driven by Gordon Elliott was returning home after the play in the Methodist Church, when about a mile from Madoc the wheels on the car became locked, turning the car upside down. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt but the car was badly damaged, three wheels, the top and the windshield being broken.

This summer some of our aesthetically inclined citizens organized themselves into a Horticultural Society for the purpose of making our town a more beautiful and a more pleasing place in which to live. By teaching, by example and by the donation of prizes by one of our public-spirited citizens much was accomplished along this line, and to give an added stimulus to the movement an expert on the beautification of our homes was brought by the Association to our town and spoke to a very generously filled house and all went away filled with aesthetic enthusiasm.

Peterboro's fire loss for the month of November was $10. The number of alarms responded to was 24.

To be able to go to her own back yard in Belleville and pick a bouquet of fox on December 1st was the unique experience of a local woman. The flowers are equally as pretty and fresh looking as they would be during their regular season.

The oldest English name for Christmas is Modra Nih, or Mother's Night. In the early days, when our Saxon forefathers had just settled down in the country that was to be England, the day of December 25th was given up to games and feasting, but the night was dedicated to the special honor of mothers. They occupied the seats of honor, and everyone brought them gifts. Sons and daughters who had gone out into the world strove to be at home on that one night in the year. A little later the name Yule was given to Christmas, and the rejoicings of the day were prolonged into the night, when men sang and told stories sitting round the cheerful blaze of the Yule log. The old customs of Mother's Night gradually died out, though they still survive in a few remote parts of Britain. Its place has been taken to some extent by Mothering Sunday in the North of England. On that day everyone who can do so still makes a pilgrimage homewards, and the mother receives the homage of her family.

Mr. G. Murray, local Dominion Bank manager, is receiving contributions for the Sick Children's Hospital Building Fund. There won't be any canvass in Madoc and anyone wishing to make a donation to possession of the grounds. A day or two afterwards while working outside, the cars were assailed by the joyous shouts of the chase reminding us of Sir Walter Scott's description of that sport in Scotland and on looking up we beheld two beautiful Aerdales with their progeny of seven in close pursuit of a cow. Although we have a by-law forbidding the running of these animals at large yet every fall the people of this nuisance. Owners of domestic animals when the pasture fields are too bare for their subsistence should house them up and not compel otherwise respectable citizens from exercising that part of the English vocabulary unknown to the clergy.

Queen Alexandra celebrated her 79th birthday on Saturday, December 1st. She is in excellent health.

THE MADOC REVIEW

churned out ditties of parade information: the C.H.S.S. Year-3 marketing classes for making signs for store windows and decorating the Speed Queen window; Calvin McCoy, Ross Clark, and Dick Jones for their trucks and drivers for many of the floats; the Senior Citizens who packed hundreds of bags of candy for the children; Lindsay Empey and his crew who decorated the streets with lights; the citizens of Madoc who allowed floats to be parked all over their streets with nary a complaint; all the people who participated in the parade to make the 1973 Santa Claus Parade the biggest in history; and Jim Hanna for his "ho! ho! ho!"

Thank you, thank you, thank you. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year from the Madoc Chamber of Commerce.

Mathematics, Geography and Commercial classes.

The usherettes were most helpful and gracious, and the Tweed Club was immensely impressed. While in the relaxing mood, several pictures were taken by Mr. Bob Thom of the Seniors in different locations in the school while on tour.

The Club members were invited to speak to the students, and since many from Tweed were in the classrooms and halls, many a wee chat were enjoyed with the students whom they knew.

The guests were then invited to the cafeteria, where Mrs. Kincaid and her helpers served a delicious lunch consisting of a variety of dainty sandwiches, pickles, fancy desserts, squares and hot beverages.

The bus trip, entertainment, tour and lunch were all provided at no cost to the Tweed Seniors, who had such a pleasant time. They wish to thank the staff and students sincerely for the invitation and the visit as a whole.

Never before has so much worked so well.

In designing the Super Brute, our idea was simply to make a machine that would perform better; and that would go on performing better, longer.

So we put in power. A front-mounted Sachs engine. A new transmission, with heavy-duty chain and a double-sprocket freewheeling track drive, for minimum power loss.

We built in lightness, with an all-aluminum chassis with race-proven front-end structure.
Balance, with new wide-stance
Ski-Sorber™ suspension.

Comfort, with a slide suspension adjustable for your weight and snow conditions, and a posture-contoured foam seat.

We devised a track tunnel that's self-clearing, not clogging.
We added a completely new concept in the control module.
It includes a headlight that swivels to show you where you're going, on a curve. And is integral with a high-rise, wrap-around windshield that doesn't leave your head or hands out in the cold.

And looked so good.

Ask engineers for performance, reliability, accessibility, long life, etcetera, and you don't necessarily expect the greatest looking machine you ever saw. But that's just what we got in the Super Brute.

Get around to your Alouette dealer soon, and see if you don't agree. But be sure to take a good look inside, as well as outside.
Then you'll see why we're able to say "Alouette delivers".

B.P. Oil Kings

Defeat Havelock

Grey Cup Fever must have been responsible for the great play of some of the B.P. Oil Kings as hard skating and great goaltending were the order of the day as the team defeated Havelock 8-3 on Saturday, November 24th. Great efforts were turned in by Grant Hagerman, Roger Smith and Doug Potts.

The first period saw the team take a 3-1 lead. Hagerman scored at 1:04 from McGuire and LeSage. He connected again at 6:59 from McGuire and Lessard. Roger Smith rounded the scoring out at 16:31 from Holmes. The next period saw the same amount of scoring 3-1 for the locals. Gary Brooks from Hagerman and McGuire at 4:53. At 11:32 Tom "The Shot" St. Jules scored from Smith and Rivers. Hagerman got his hat trick at 13:36 from LeSage and McGuire. The final period saw just two goals for the locals while Havelock again got a goal. Doug Potts on perfect solo play scored at 5:14 and at 17:01 Doug Perry scored from Chapman and Bancroft. Final score was 8-3.

The team would like to thank the fans for their support.

Zero in
(by W. D. Tipper)
In this particular edition, the last one for 1973, there are several things that we want to bring to your attention. Wayne Martin has two items. One deals with Canfarm records, the other deals with 'On Using Your Accountant' and the implications of new legislation in transferring of farms. Just to give you something to think about at the end of the year, we are including some information on the metric system. It may be closer to being used than we think.

Tax Rebate ????

The official title is 1973 Farm Tax Reduction Program. It provides 50% farm property tax rebate or about the amount you would pay in property taxation on your farm land.

You should have received a leaflet outlining it. It tells you that to claim it you must (a) reside in Ontario (b) own a property assessed as a farm (c) have a farm operation that produces $2000 worth of products (d) have paid at least 50% of your 1973 municipal taxes.

To Claim the Rebate — youFRIENDLY HINTS*SNOWMOBILING FOR FUN & SAFETY

When the snow finally comes to stay, it's more fun for snowmobilers. Curlers may argue the point, but nothing has put more fun into our Canadian winter than snowmobiling. (Hockey Night in Canada notwithstanding!)

There are hazards involved however, so we've put together some tips that will make snowmobiling fun and safe for the whole family.

1. Rough terrain and uneven snow surfaces can result in overturned machines — reduce speed.

2. Below freezing temperatures are necessary for the best snowmobiling.

3. Ice travel is extremely hazardous and should not be attempted unless accompanied by other snowmobilers.

4. Reduce speed in wooded areas and watch for snow-covered stumps, low hanging branches and fallen trees.

5. Use only public thoroughfares designated as snowmobile routes and exercise extreme caution. The greatest number of snowmobile fatalities have occurred through collision with motor vehicles.

6. Reduce speed at night; headlights are inadequate for the speed of which machines are capable.

7. Proper clothing, available at your Co-op, is most important. It should be warm, yet light.

8. Do not wear loose clothing or scarves.

9. Keep clothing dry and don't become over heated. Loosen clothing at throat to allow warm air to escape as necessary.

10. Watch for frostbite. It appears as white spots most frequently on ears, nose and cheeks. Minor bites can be thawed with heat from your hand or warm compress. Do Not Rub with Snow or Massage at this will damage skin tissue.

11. Carry on the machine emergency equipment such as first aid kit, matches, flashlight etc. . . all of which can be purchased at your Co-op.

12. In case of an emergency the first important rule is Don't Panic! This is vital to survival.

13. Conserve your energy and take careful stock of the situation.

14. Light a fire for warmth and to attract attention.

15. If a shelter is needed, make a wind-break from snow, poles, evergreen boughs or whatever, might be available.

16. Distress signal — A hundred foot circle tramped into the snow with paths radiating from centre like spokes in a wheel. Evergreen boughs placed upright are helpful. They cast shadows on a sunny day.

Madoc Co-operative Association will receive an application form. If you are eligible, you apply for it. You must certify that your application is correct. The applications come directly to you from the Subsidy Branch, Ministry of Treasury, Economics and Inter-governmental Affairs.

Warning — If your property that you claim as a farm is sold for reasons other than farming before 1983, then the rebate must be repaid plus interest at 8% per annum by the person owning the property at the time it is reassessed for purposes other than farming. Such a case would occur where a farm were sold for a subdivision. The minute the subdivision started it would be reassessed. The owner at that time would have to repay the rebate with interest.

Records For The Farm Business Man
(by T. Wayne Martin)

In talking to many farm families we find that the majority of farm business men have a farm record system, first of all for income tax purposes and secondly for farm management purposes. By law, certain records must be maintained for income tax. With a proper record system both income tax and farm management information should be available.

Canfarm is one of several methods of maintaining an up-to-date farm record system. Canfarm is a computerized record program where entries are generally submitted on a monthly basis and an analysis and summary is returned for the month and the year to date. There is nothing magical about a computerized farm record program. The information that comes back is only as good as the information that is submitted. During 1973, the Hastings Farm Service Club has provided a Canfarm program for the county with Mrs. Margorie Donnan as the Canfarm technician.

There are various recording programs available to the farm business man under Mrs. Donnan's direction. These range from training and supervising the farm operator to record his own transactions to actually recording the farm transactions herself.

A meeting will be held in Hastings in December to discuss the 1974 Canfarm program. If you would like more information, please contact Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food at 395-3393 by December 12, 1973, and you will be notified of the date of this information meeting.

If you are wondering about this program or even just interested in further information call now and leave your name.

The Metric System

For Farmers

We have all heard of the metric system as a unit of measurement in size, volume and weight. We may not be aware, it is already used in schools and sometime in the future Canada will likely adopt it. There are 131 countries in the world on the metric system, which deals in multiples of 10. What's a hectare? It's a land measurement unit in the metric system.

Income Tax Problems Now

And In The Future

(by T. Wayne Martin)

During the past few years we have stressed the need for well qualified people to prepare farm income tax returns and provide tax management advice. Most farm people refer to the person who completes their income tax return as the Accountant. Unfortunately very few farm business men have a chartered accountant prepare their income tax returns. The more usual situation is a person who calls around the farm and in one to two hours summarizes figures provided by the farmer and then these are transferred usually to a central office to an income tax return. With our complex business operations and the ever changing tax regulations, I personally do not feel that a visit of one or two hours can ever be sufficient for the preparation of an income tax return and the provision of tax management advice.

In addition, usually a different person appears each year and on top of that the business man is asked to pay his fee anywhere from two to five years in advance. Time is running out for 1973, but if you have been thinking about making any changes you should be contacting someone immediately. There are chartered accountants in this area as well as some other qualified people. Their services should be available for only for the preparation of the income tax return, but also for tax management advice. As an example within the last few years legislation has been introduced that would allow a farmer to leave assets to his wife. This off sets tax amount in the family farm worth up to $50,000. Other legislation also introduced would shift the burden of succession duties by permit ing the business of daily on farm assets over a 25 year period. Does the person preparing your return ever mention similar items? At this time of 1973 every farm business man should ask himself several questions. 1.

Am I satisfied with the person preparing my return for 1973? 2. Do I have doubts about any of the answers to the above questions now is the time to look for someone else, not next year.

3. Do I know who will be preparing my return for 1973?

Merry Christmas

SENIOR CITIZENS REPORT

by Mary Ann Holmes

Madoc & District Senior Citizens Club No. 473 held their annual Christmas Party at the United Church parlors on Wednesday, Dec. 12th. The President, Mrs. Broadborth welcomed our members with a special welcome to guests Captain Thompson and Father Murphy. Rev. and Mrs. Dilliborough, Rev. and Mrs. Head and Brian, Rev. Violet Mallory, and Mrs. Rod McMurray and Mrs. M. McMurray of Gunter. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison and Mrs. Broadborth read a Christmas poem. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary Mrs. Johns.

President, Mrs. Broadborth was presented with a gift for which she thanked the club warmly. Mrs. Mary Ann Holmes, retiring press secretary was also presented with a gift in appreciation for her work through the years. She also thanked her friends, warmly. The meeting was then given over to Mrs. G. Moorecroft, program convenor. She opened this portion of the meeting with a lively sing song of carols with Mrs. Reid at the piano. Christmas readings were given by Mrs. Bateman and Mrs. Declair. The ladies from Gunter sang very sweetly for everyone's enjoyment and a piano solo by Mrs. Elizabeth Empey was also very much enjoyed. The gentlemen of the clergy each spoke briefly and Captain Thompson presented the Club with the gift of a cheque from the Anglican Ladies and also one from the Canadian Legion, Madoc. A certificate of merit was also presented to Mr. Alvin Devolin by Captain Thompson from the Royal Canadian Legion of Madoc for his outstanding contribution selling poppies during the recent poppy drive. Alvin was also presented with a gift from the

OUR TRIP TO ST. JEROME

(By Kelly Taylor, Sheila Nolan, Brenda Stire, Carol Whiteman, Kathy Graham and Dana Winterburn)

Thursday morning was spent at Laurentian school. We played many different games, and sang a lot of songs in French. It was a regular

French class only a lot more fun. The morning passed swiftly and soon it was time to go. At 12:30 a bus picked us and our friends up and we went to the St. Jerome chocolate factory. Mr. Murphy (our principal) met us and our friends at the school. We were very delighted to see a familiar face again. He followed us to the factory in a car.

At the factory we had to wear paper hats to cover our hair so it wouldn't get in the chocolate.

When we got in we first went into the lab where they test the formulas for the chocolate. The main part was being renewed, so that took care of all the chocolate sampling, but we did taste some chocolate chips. They also made margarine there, everybody got some margarine to take home but the Madoc people didn't take any because it would melt on the train. The tour was over so we went back to the school, and home.

Friday we brought our suitcases to school. When the bell rang we lined up, and as soon as we were quiet we went in line by line (this was done because the halls were so narrow).

When we got to our classroom we gave our hosts and hostesses a year book in our appreciation. Afterwards we learned a popular French song called "Au Chant de l'Alouette". At 10:00 we went to a shopping plaza. Much like the mall in Belleville. There we spent the rest of our money! And we bought a present for Mme. Bolduc in our appreciation of her time and patience.

After lunch the girls from St. Jerome started to cry. They didn't want to leave, but Mrs. Hailstone comforted them. It was a long wait at the station and finally we waved good-bye to Miss Bolduc.

At maturity the male should weigh over a ton, while the female weighs around 1,400 lbs.

Mr. Kincaid gets a good deal of fun out of his new "hobby." Buffalos are unpredictable, he said, and slow careful movement is required in their presence. But when the pair are in a playful mood, "they frisk around like big kittens," he said. (Some kittens!)

Now a confirmed advocate of buffalo raising, Mr. Kincaid has volunteered to help anyone else interested in getting started in the same undertaking. "I've got a farmer friend down in Humebridge Township that I've got him interested in the idea," he reported. "But he hasn't got a herd yet."

themselves, he might be able to obtain them from one or more of the breeders listed on the attached sheet."

On that sheet was the name of Dr. W. W. Belch of Peterborough. "There it was," said Mr. Kincaid, "only 50 miles away."

But his first contact with Dr. Belch was disappointing: it looked like another dead end. "Dr. Belch wasn't interested in selling any of his buffalos," said Mr. Kincaid. "He wanted to build up his own herd."

By this time, though, Mr. Kincaid was determined to have a hand in raising at least a few of the once-numerous animals who had been driven to near extinction by our ancestors. He had learned that buffalos numbered over 100 million on this continent just a century ago and had been exterminated at such an astounding rate that in 1900 only six wild buffalos could be found in the United States!

Home for the Kincaid buffalos is south of Madoc. They live on a tract just over two acres surrounded by 1,000 linear feet of fencing. They have access to a small feed for hay feed. Mr. Kincaid plans to "Right now the female is bigger than the male and she bosses him around," explained Mr. Kincaid. "But they'll get into their first rutting season next July or August, and then the male will take over." Gestation period for the buffalo is about nine months, so Mr. Kincaid may have the first addition to his herd in the Summer of 1975.

At maturity the male should weigh over a ton, while the female weighs around 1,400 lbs.

NO L.I.P. GRANT FOR MADOC

Although the recent application of the Madoc and District Chamber of Commerce for a LIP grant was turned down, a total of seven in the County have been approved, it was announced on Friday by Manpower and Immigration Minister, Robert Andras.

Priorities, including Indians and education, and the fact that there was only $58,000 allotted for the whole Riding, combined to lead to the disapproval of the local application.

The approved projects will create a total of 29 jobs in Hastings riding.

The seven projects announced Friday are part of 234 projects throughout Canada creating a total of 1,570 jobs that have been announced. This involves a federal contribution of $3,674,000.

Altogether 1,374 LIP projects have been approved by Ottawa for 1973-74. This represents a federal contribution of $27,192,693 and creates a total of 10,700 jobs. Other projects to be approved will be announced later.

The establishment of a Day Care Centre in Tweed is the project approved for that community. This venture will employ three people for a total of 156 man-weeks of employment.

The aim is to provide a day care centre for Tweed and the surrounding rural community while freeing parents, especially welfare recipients, to seek employment.

The approved projects will involve 243 man-weeks of employment by three people.

Its aims have been set as an attempt to involve local citizens in providing tutoring for slow learners as well as providing counselling in music and drama designed to create student creativity.

Other objectives are: maintenance of equipment and materials, and learning resources to be set up and made available to schools and communities.

Three projects were approved for Belleville. They are:

The setting up of the Hastings County Museum exhibition. This project will create three jobs and involve 168 man-weeks of employment.

The objective is to establish display facilities throughout Hastings County to exhibit on a revolving basis projects of an educational and cultural value.

The Queen Victoria Community Services will employ three, for a total of 88 man-weeks.

This project will hire people to act for existing committees in carrying out established and urgent needs that current organizations are unable to manage with volunteers only.

It aims to co-ordinate for the community those projects offered by the Belleville recreation department and private, schools and the community.

This project has three main categories: sports and recreation, arts, and culture.

The program is aimed toward all age groups in many areas of interest. Activities, although centred around Queen Victoria School, are open to anyone in the community.

The third project approved for Belleville is Project Help. This will create 442 man-weeks of employment for three people.

The venture aims to provide services for disadvantaged children within the present school system by instigating individual tutoring and counselling as well as by extracurricular activities, for example, theatre arts craft.

In Deseronto, the LIP approved project is the completion of a community centre started with a LIP grant for 1971-72.

This project will employ 11 people for a total of 97 man-weeks of employment. It aims to complete the inside of the community centre.

Santa Claus Parade

Judges Results

We, the judges of the Santa Claus Parade would like to thank one and all for their effort in the Santa Claus Parade.

After a lot of consideration the following floats were chosen:

1st. Bill Taylor Well Drilling; 2nd. Marmora Sr. Public School; 3rd. Marmora Lions; 4th. Canada Talc Mine (Maf).

Each of these entries have been presented with a certificate of merit in appreciation of their hard working efforts involved in preparing and presenting their individual float in Madoc Santa Claus Parade.

The parade committee would like to thank the judges for their very difficult task of judging these floats to the best of their ability. Without the participation of these entries and all other entries Madoc would not have had a successful Santa Claus Parade.

After one hour later, Const. Bill Young was called to a two-vehicle accident on the Sulphide Road, four-tenths of a mile east of Actonite.

Cars driven by Christopher Purchase, 23, of Corybore and Roger Ebbald, 19, of Toronto, sideswiped, resulting in $100 damages to the Purchase vehicle and $300 to the second car.

Approximately $1000 damages resulted to the underside of a 1973 half-ton truck when the driver, John David Smith, 37, of R.R. 1, Tweed, lost control and went into the ditch. The mishap occurred on the Crookston Road, 4.2 miles west of Tweed on Friday, December 14th, at about eight o'clock in the evening.

Grade 8 Orientation Program At Centre Hastings Secondary School

During the past week, the grade eight students of Marmora Senior Public School have been visiting Centre Hastings Secondary School to find out for themselves what high school is all about. Each student, with the help of the Guidance Counsellor, Mr. D. Weir, selected eight courses that he or she was interested in. These were worked into a individual time-table by the Guidance Counsellor so that everyone could experience a typical high school program for one day.

Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson celebrated the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary at a party held in the Orange Hall in Madoc, on the 24th of November.

Married in Frankford, November 26th, 1923, the Davids sons have three children, Jim, and Virginia, eighteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

They have three children, Jim, and Virginia, eighteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Many lovely gifts were received from family and friends.

Messages of congratulations were received from Governor General and Mrs. Roland Michener, Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau, Robert Stanfield, Premier Davis, Jack Ellis M.P. and Clarke Rollins, M.P.P.

Snowmobile Accident

The first snowmobile accident in the area occurred on Friday evening, December 14th, when a Queensboro man was seriously injured.

Taken to Belleville General Hospital with a minor concussion.

GREETINGS OF CHRISTMAS PAST

When there are no kids around, Christmas loses a lot of its excitement. At least that's the way it seems around our house this year.

We've always had a family Christmas, most often at the farm of the grandparents. Those were great old traditional festivities.

We drove to the farm, left the car at the highway and staggered through the snow up the lane to the house, loaded with gifts. The kids, wrapped to the nose, were fairly hysterical by the time we entered the big, warm farm kitchen.

There we were assailed by the enveloping scents of roasting turkey and pine needles, a wonderful combination.

Then came the opening of presents, with everybody protesting, "Oh, you shouldn't have . . ." Except the kids. They would rip off the wrappings, scarcely glance at the contents and start looking under the tree for another package with their name on it.

A lot of love and thought went into the gifts, and sometimes there were tears of pleasure.

The women talked a blue streak and caromed off each other as they chattered around the kitchen. The men sat around drooling. And the children were the centre of attention, funny and delightful, and they loved it.

Then came the great orgy at the table, with everyone from the littler to Grandad racing into the turkey and trimmings until their eyes were bulging.

This was sort of the climax of the holiday, and like every climax, it had its anti-climax: great stacks of dishes to be washed; distended bellies; exhausted kids. In its way, it was a pretty pagan celebration.

But by evening, everything was cleared up, digestions would begin operating again, and there'd be carols and quiet talk and a general feeling of warmth and love and security.

This was the culmination of several weeks of Christmas pageants and Christmas parties at the Legion Hall for the kids, and writing cards to old friends, and scrambling around for gifts, and putting up the thrice-blasted tree and pretending that there weren't going to be a lot of presents this year.

They were good times, and I miss them, but I don't know whether I could stand the pace any more. I was working about twelve hours a day, and there seemed to be a festivity or something every night.

There were a couple of Christmases that are funny in retrospect, though at the time there was a marked lack of Christian spirit.

One was the time we bought the television set for the grandparents. It was in the early days of TV, and we all chipped in to buy the set. None of us could afford one for ourselves. There was tremendous secrecy. It was to be the surprise of the century. My brother-in-law and I dragged the great brute of a box up the lane on a toboggan and wrestled it into the farmhouse. It was to be opened under the tree.

Kim was about three, and full of that wild excitement that invades kids at Christmas. We had barely deposited the big box in the house when she piped, "Hope you like the tee-bee, Granny." Some secret. Some surprise.

And there was the Christmas we held at our place. The grandparents and the aunts and other assorted bodies were invited. My wife had spent two hours the night before scrubbing and waxing the kitchen floor. I had spent three hours preparing the turkey. We were going to show them that we could entertain in style.

All was in readiness. The Old Battleaxe told me to take the turk out of the oven. I did, skidded on the wax, and roasting pan, turkey and all went flying through the air. Wall-to-wall grease. Turkey basted in floor-wax. It was one of the less-memorable moments in a happy marriage.

And I remember Christmas a long time ago, in the Depression, when a child's one and only present might be a suit of long underwear, or a handknit sweater. Depressing, was the Depression.

Of recent years, our kids have come straggling in from university, sometimes with a friend, for Christmas. And we've had music and good food, and fun.

Last year we were alone. If I remember correctly, we dined on frozen meat pies. I had bought the usual two trees. I got the little one up. The big spruce was leaned in a corner, and I threw it out on Boxing Day.

This year, we'll be alone again. But things are going to be different.

Son Hugh won't be home. He's off in deepest Quebec. But he's already had his present. Daughter Kim won't be home, because I don't particularly want my grandchild born on a bus.

So. We're thinking of closing up the joint and going to the city. My wife can supervise the layette. I can write cheques. We'll stay in a hotel, where somebody else had to grapple with the tree.

And, if things turn out just right, we might get the finest Christmas present we've ever received. A bouncing baby grandchild.

One Year's Work... L.I.P. Grant Book Completed

(by Pat LeSage)
(Tweed, Ontario)

To any reader of the January '73 to now — MADOC REVIEW who is interested in keeping the past alive: Wherever there are older people, there are invaluable stories of the past. From December '73, old past and present residents of Tweed and Hungerford district were involved in a Local Initiative Program, in making a book of bygone days. Margaret Rashotte, Baden Vance, and myself interviewed, tape-recorded, and typed the stories told by our older people.

How did Madoc get involved? There is a small-business man in your town who liked the challenge of tackling a big-business enterprise. Maurice Gisulah of the Madoc Review was enthusiastic about our project when we first went to him. He thought making a book of a time gone-by, who experienced the early 1900's, the Depression, the First World War and other past events, was a good idea. From that point on, our eyes were constantly being opened to the many-faceted process involved in printing a book. For laymen, being completely green as to what was involved in making a book, it was a fascinating experience.

It took many long months to get the copy proof-read and ready for printing. Each time there were corrections, the original sheet, which eventually was to be photographed and made into a negative for reproducing, had to be changed.

Finally in November the next step was to photograph all the original sheets. Eric Biesthorpe spent many long, painstaking hours "opaqing" the negatives. I now understand that term to mean blocking out any unnecessary marks on a negative by means of a heavy paint. Four of these negatives were put together and burnt in a "plate-making" machine (layman's terms again) to form four pages on one side of a large zinc plate.

Nothing appeared on the plate as it came out of the machine, but I had confidence that some kind of magic would be performed. And it was. Eric poured a red solution of developer over the plates, rubbed them with a cloth and there were the words and pictures! (Speaking of pictures, I forgot to mention that each person in the book was photographed and the process by which these photographs were transferred to the printed page was a story in itself. There were also reproduced photos of places of interest in the book.)

Each plate had to be burnt twice. We ended up with 24 plates, eight pages each, front and back, to make a 192-page book. A far cry from the 50 page booklet we were allotted when we got the grant back in January of '73! The next step was to put the plates in the press.

It was a great day when we heard the click-clack of the press and saw the paper with words on it finally roll out. Half of the book was put on the floor in 12 groups of 1,000 sheets each. Each large sheet had to be "backed up" (meaning that each sheet was turned over and words were printed on the back).

We then took these sheets to Belleville to Warwick & Weeks to get our paper folded into the book size - 6" by 9". It took the folding machine 3½ hours to fold 12,000 sheets of 12" by 18" paper, twice. The next day, Eric had the other half of the book ready to be folded, so by Saturday, December 8th, put book was ready to be inserted. We had an inexperienced, but very eager, group of six people placing one folded eight page section into another one. This process took the better part of three days. At this point we had 24 boxes with 1,000 eight-page sections in each box - with a few extra. (We found that in printing you always make some extra in case of error by man or machine.) Maracle Press by Oshawa was in a Christmas rush by this time, but by some miracle of Maracle they got our book, "Them Were The Days", sewn and bound, ready for pick-up on Friday, December 14th.

Now they are on sale at the Madoc Review at what we feel is a most reasonable price, $3.00. It is 192 pages of stories told by your neighbours about a time gone-by. We're proud of it because it was done professionally by a small business. It shows that there are times when one can be independent, and still produce something worthwhile. Speaking for myself, I would say that making this book was more than a pleasure, it was a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Mark Twain, the great humorist, in his early days worked on a Missouri newspaper. A superstitious subscriber wrote in saying that he found a spider in his paper, and asked whether that was a sign of good or bad luck. The humorist wrote this answer and printed it: "Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door, and live a life of undisturbed peace ever afterwards."

George Bothwell, of Owen Sound, was elected President of the United Farmers' Co-operative Company at a meeting of the new directors held in Toronto recently.

Rose McGarvey, aged 2 years, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McGarvey, of Marmora, was on Tuesday suddenly taken ill. While the parents were absent the little tot procured a cup of coal oil and drank it, causing strangulation. A physician was called and saved the child's life.

Editor — Merry Christmas to ye Editor, staff and readers of the little home paper, the North Hastings Review, and also a happy and prosperous New Year.

We are sorry our teacher, Miss Varty, is leaving the school. It may be some job to get another as good.

Mr. Fred Kingvens, who successfully underwent an operation at Belleville Hospital, has returned home and is quite well.

Mr. Alex Moore, who passed through a critical operation at Peterborough Hospital, has so far recovered as to allow Mrs. Moore coming home last week and he will leave the hospital this week.

Mrs. W. H. Bradshaw has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to walk across the room.

Nearly all the boys are away to the camps for the winter.

Mr. Mat McLean is getting his new house completed. He expects to move in before Christmas.

We understand Mr. Ed

Kingvens has purchased the store and residence from Mr. Adams.

Mrs. S. Tice has returned home after staying with Mrs. S. Kingvens during her son's absence.

Measrs. Charlie Liddle, W. G. Smith and P. Smith, of Hillier, and Miss Amy Liddle were in St. Ola district attending the last illness, death and burial of their aunt, Mrs. E. Reid, formerly Katherine Liddle. Mr. P. Smith spent last weekend with several relatives.

South Settlement — Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Noyes motored Belleville recently.

Mrs. Lyla Holland, Nancy and Florence spent a few days at Mrs. Wesley Wickens.

Quite a number attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. Chambers, of Stirling, formerly of Crookston, interment being made at White Lake Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wicksen and children spent Sunday at Mr. Geo. Wallace's, of Ivanhoe.

Mrs. Gladys Ashe entertained company on Sunday evening.

A few from here attended the sale in Rawdon on Monday.

Mr. Ross Holland and Miss Laura Ashe, Mr. Austin Ray and Miss Hazel McGuire spent Sunday at Mr. W. Hollands.

After a short illness one of Allen Settlemen's brightest and most estimable residents passed away on Saturday, December 8th, in the person of Mrs. Rosanna (Leech) Rollins, wife of Mr. Joseph Rollins. Mrs. Rollins was born in the township of Faraday in 1894 and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Leech, who were among the first of the pioneer settlers of North Hastings. She lived at L'Amable until her marriage to Mr. Joseph Rollins on the 14th of December 1921.

Gold-headed canes were presented to two district doctors at a meeting of the Hastings and Prince Edward County Medical Society recently at the Hotel Gilbert, Trenton. The members of the Society met for a dinner of venison presented by Drs. Byrne and Teller. Dr. Walter B. Crowe, Trenton, and Dr. Samuel Eagleson, Madoc, each received the gold-headed cane for fifty years of service as general practitioners. Both men are still active in their professions.

"THE TWELVE NIGHTS"
In northern Europe, the Teutons observed the winter solstice, calling it Yule. As the nights were long, it was referred to as "the twelve nights."

To the young and young-at-heart. Our holiday wishes...heartfelt appreciation.

LOOKING BACK

In celebration of their 40th Wedding Anniversary Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson, of Marmora Township, were at home to relatives, friends and neighbours on Sunday afternoon and evening. The mildness of the day permitted a good attendance. Their farm is one of the oldest in the township, the current deeds extending back to 1847.

December 22, 1949
Wedding — On November 5th, 1949, with Rev. Father Dwyer, of Kingston, officiating at Philomena's Catholic Church, Ormarty, Madeline Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Warren, of Madoc, to Nelson Louis Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barry, of Madoc.

On December 27th, a quiet wedding was held at the Standard Church parsonage, Madoc, when Rev. W. G. Borch, united in marriage Shirley Helen Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Reynolds, of Madoc, to Otto Morden Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Richardson, of Frankford.

Clarke T. Rollins, Reeve of Wollaston Township, was involved in a freak accident on Thursday evening of last week when the car he was driving on No. 62 highway east of Maynooth was struck by a falling tree. The tree was an 18-inch elm. The falling tree, which was broken off during a heavy wind, smashed the wind shield of the car severely cutting Mr. Rollins' hands and put the car out of control. The car went into the ditch among some large boulders. Pat LeBerger, Department of Highways employee, arrived on the scene shortly after and said Mr. Rollins was out of the car but in a dazed condition. He was brought to Bancroft Red Cross Hospital 25 miles distant, where he was attended by Dr. O. W. Anderson and then permitted to return to his home at Coe Hill. The accident occurred on McGregor's Hill ten miles east of Maynooth and was investigated by Provincial Constables J. Hawkins and W. Fitzsimmons, of Bancroft. The new 1949 model Desoto was an almost complete wreck.

Engagement — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tufts, of Madoc announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley, to Dr. Jack Posnikoff, of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. The wedding will take place on December 30th, at 7 p.m. in the Chapel of R.C.A.F. Station, Winnipeg.

"If you have old Christmas tree lights which you have used year after year, better check them closely before you put them on the tree." They should be inspected for damage and fraying. Loose connections and bare wires have started many a disastrous Christmas tree fire. Figures released by the Ontario Fire Marshal's Office show that over 5,000 fires caused nearly $10 million in property damage, along with 58 fire deaths during the period containing the holiday season in 1957. By all means do not use candles. Even light bulbs produce heat richly embellished in white and gold, centred the dining room table, while the living room was gay with a brilliantly lighted Christmas tree; and a little Swiss church with steeple and bell, with lighted windows added to the lovely appearance of the room.

Weddings — A quiet wedding was performed at the home of Rev. Alfred Poultney, of Madoc, on Wednesday, December 21, at 2 p.m., when he united in marriage, Jean Winnifred Warren, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Warren, of Madoc, to Nelson Louis Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barry, of Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Holdship, of Smiths Falls, spent Monday with Mrs. Josephine Feeney.

Mrs. Patsy Alexander is a patient in Belleville General Hospital where she underwent an appendectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bosley and Katherine spent Saturday in Kingston with Mrs. Bosley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Corkery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holmes spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gordon attended the party for Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson (newly-weds) held in the Hall, at Eldorado, Friday night.

According to statistics gathered at check stations hunters were more successful this year than last, in spite of the mild weather. For the most part, hunters reported that they had seen more deer, had a good time and left lots of deer in the bush for future years. However, there were a few gripes. The majority of the hunters reported that the season was too early, and also they asked for a set date for the opening. The latter being so that persons could plan ahead for their holidays. Summaris of statistics — Number of deer killed 15,000. Number of days hunted 150,017. Hunter's success 29.8%. Persons who hunted from an organized camp had the better chance of bagging a deer as figures show that 2,345 hunters had a success rate of 32.1% while men who hunted singly only had a 16.5% rating. There was an increase in the number of bears killed this season. Department officers checked 30 killed by hunters with other kills being reported.

Council met on Friday, December 14th, 1973 at 1:00 p.m. with Reeve Cecil Woods, Deputy Reeve John Irwin and Councillors Christie Bailey, Harold Harris and Don Wannamaker present.

Harris — Wannamaker — that the minutes of the special meeting November 19th to plan for garage opening and regular meeting of December 3rd be accepted as read.

sion, a broken jaw, and cuts on his head, was Gerald B. Laton, 21, who is now listed in fair condition, after the snowmobile he was driving ran into a parked car in Quintonboro.

The snowmobile was a write-off, and damage to the car, owned by Mrs. Jean Holmes, were estimated at $30.00. The snowmobile went right under the car, raising the rear wheels off the ground in the crash. Police said that had the Laton man not been wearing a helmet, his injuries would have been much more serious.

Const. W. Sawkins of the Madoc Detachment, Ontario Provincial Police, investigated.

Mr. C. H. Pope, Fire Services Adviser was present to discuss fire protection for Madoc Twp., Mr. Jerry Morrison was also present for this discussion.

Harris — Harris — that we accept the completion of the garage on October 15th, 1973, therefore no liquidated damage be charged. Township took occupancy November 1st, 1973, agreement guaranteed to October 31st, 1974, carried.

Two land divisions: File No. B447/73 Dorian J. Stewart extras on electrical wiring for Twp. Garage, subject to approval of the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, carried.

Wannamaker — Baileys — that we give the library a grant of $200.00 and the Agricultural Society a grant of $100.00.

Living With A French Canadian Family

(by Sheila Nolan)

When I first walked into the door I realized that they were a warm and friendly family. They were very kind to me and they would always make sure that I had enough to eat. Their food was the same as ours except they had a bowl of soup before the big meal. Their home was similar to ours and their furniture was modern. I thought that the family was wonderful and if I had another chance I would love to go back. Except for the different language it was just like living at home with my mother and father.

A STATEMENT OF CONCERN BY THE HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS OF HASTINGS COUNTY

Give a Gift Subscription of the Madoc Review
The gift that keeps on giving all year long

Why do we protest this legislation?

The legislation, an amendment to the Ministry of Education Act does the following:

a) It infringes on the civil rights of teachers by limiting our ability to resign from teaching positions we find unacceptable.

b) It removes the right of mass resignation from several groups of teachers after they have already legally exercised that right.

c) It affects not only teachers. This amendment will have an adverse effect on the general position of any employee in his collective bargaining and it also has implications for the civil rights of any employee in his contract with his employer.

d) Other labour and professional groups recognize the danger of this legislation and have publicly announced their support for the teachers. Among these organizations are: The Canadian Labour Congress, the Ontario Federation of Labour, the Canadian Union of Public Employees and the Ontario Medical Association.

Our protest is not directed against the Hastings County Board of Education or the students of Hastings County.

Our walkout must be put in perspective. Since 1944 mass resignations by teachers have resulted in the loss of less than a month of teaching days over 28 years. This exemplary record of restraint hardly merits the sledge-hammer legislation by the government.

OBITUARYMRS. GEORGE MCKINNON

Mother

A lifetime resident of the Madoc area, Mrs. Ethel Ann McKinnon, Madoc, died Wednesday, December 12th, 1973, in Belleville General Hospital. She was in her 80th year.

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trotter, she was born in Madoc township and was a member of Trinity United Church.

Predeceased by her husband, she is survived by a son Donald G. McKinnon, R.R. 2, Madoc, a daughter Mrs. D. (Jean) Dempsey, of Appleton, Wisconsin, and seven grandchildren.

There are four sisters, Mrs. J. (Margaret) Keene of Belleville, and Mrs. J. (Florence) McMechan, Mrs. F. (Christina) MacKillop, and Miss Blanche Trotter, all of Madoc. Two sisters and five brothers predeceased her.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, December 15th with service conducted in the MacKenzie Funeral Home, Madoc, by Rev. D. W. Heard and Rev. E. R. Hawkes. Interment took place in Hazards Cemetery.

Bearers were: Stewart Munroe, Maxwell Trotter, Angus MacKillop, Carl Trotter, Edward West and Lawrence Trotter.

Oil Kings TakeTwo Victories

The B.P. Oil Kings took two important wins over the weekend to stay in second place in the Trent Valley Intermediate D. League.

Friday night the team gave Bancroft no reason to celebrate the festive season as they thumped that team 15-4. Saturday Wellington was on the short end of the stick, as they were defeated 9-6.

Bancroft got off to a slow start and were behind 7-0 after the first period. Nearly all members of the team got points; even goalie Larry Charlton added an assist. Bancroft, hampered by a lack of playing personnel, managed to score three goals in the second, but the Oil Kings also got three goals to match them. In the third the team got five goals to Bancroft's single. The scoring was done by three goals apiece for Terry Mc Gregor, Louis Rivers, and Brian O'Coin. Single goals were scored by Holmes, Perry, Potts, Lessard, LeSage and Smith.

Saturday was much closer as Wellington came very close to winning. It looked like a runaway could develop as the Oil Kings took a 3-1 lead into the second period. Paul Farrell scored twice, once from Lessard and once from O'Coin. St. Jules scored from Smith. In the second period play reversed (as usual) but so did the flow. Wellington got four goals and the Oil Kings managed three goals. After two periods it was 6-5 for the Kings. Doing the scoring was St. Jules with one, an assist to Smith and Holmes, and Smith, with two assists to Doug Perry.

In the final period Wellington tied the score, but the team battled back and got three goals. Farrell scored from McGregor. O'Coin got an unassisted goal and Gary Brook rounded out the scoring from Grant Hagerman.

Next week there are no home games, as the team travels to Campbellford Saturday night and to Bancroft for a Sunday afternoon game. I from all associated with the team have a happy and holy festival.

ROSE - DONALDSON

Mr. Bartholomew's Anglican Church, Bannockburn, was the scene of the pretty wedding of Fern Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donaldson, and Rands Rose, son of Mr. Allan Rose and the late Mrs. Rose. The wedding took place on Saturday, December 1st, at 4:00 p.m.

Rev. J. H. Thompson officiated at the double ring ceremony. The wedding music was played with Mrs. Joseph Donlevy of Bannockburn at the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bruce and family spent the supper hour with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bruce and sister Shirley at Denbigh.

Mrs. Grace Long of Bancroft held a Tupperware party at the home of Mrs. Herb Chatton, Denbigh, with several ladies attending from here.

Mrs. Joan Peplinski married Mrs. Ruth Youmans, Morley and Kimberley Peplinski and Mrs. Herb Rose to Marthian by the Doctor and Tweed on business on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bruce and girls spent Thursday in Renfrew.

Mr. and Mrs. Garry Rosenblath, Napanee, spent Wednesday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rosenblath and Maedine.

Mr. Vennachar correspondent would like to take this opportunity of wishing the Editor, Staff and Readers a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

STUDENTS RECEIVE REPORTS

Monday, December 17th was a Travel Day at Centre Hastings Secondary School. Students were given a report during the Home Room period. They carried it to each class and subject teachers filled in the first term mark and comments on each student's progress. Students took their reports home to their parents or guardians on Monday evening. Students who were absent on Monday carried out this procedure on the next school day.

Miss Darlene Ferguson, niece of the bride, was a bridesmaid and was dressed in a green A-line crimpole gown and carried a bouquet of white flowers. Miss Debbie Rose, sister of the groom, was also a bridesmaid and wore a yellow A-line gown of crimpole. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow flowers. The bridesmaids all wore matching velvet ribbons in their hair.

Mr. Elwood Graham, Cooper, attended the groom and the ushers were Mr. Ray Donaldson, brother of the bride, and Mr. Richard Rose, brother of the groom.

Camels Are Most Picturesque of Bible Animals

Camels and Christmas seem to go together. The Three Wise Men used camels in their steady journey to Bethlehem to the scene of the Nativity. They have a rather regal bearing that has been an integral part of the Christmas picture.

The camel sees objects at great distances and can travel long before the driver sees water spots on oasis. A great asset in desert travel is its "extra stomach" and a storage bin in the hump which enable it to travel long distances without food or water. The camel is also known for its snarly temper and foul breath.

The camel's gestation period lasts a year, and produces only one offspring at a time. The baby camel stands 3 feet high at 8 days. It suckles its mother's milk for a year.

Many valuable products come from the camel. Its hair is clipped in the summer and woven into the finest warm garments. Its hide is used for bags and shoes. Its manure is used for fuel cakes. For food, it supplies milk.

Madoc Women's Institute

The December meeting of the Madoc Branch of the Women's Institute was held on Friday, December 14th, at the home of Mrs. Warren Hill. After a short period of business (remember the Short Course on Choosing and Using Fabrics to be given on February 6th in the Anglican Hall in Madoc), the meeting took the form of a Christmas Party under the chairmanship of Miss A. Adams and Mrs. K. Gordon, many old favourite carols of Latin, German, Polish and English origins were sung to the spirited accompaniment of Mrs. Rene Crawford, at the piano. Then there were short readings by Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. A. Bailey. The meaning of Christmas, Santa's Fixes, The Christmas Lights, and Christmas at the Fort. Next in came a jolly, plump Santa Claus (Mrs. W. Roemer) tottering under a huge sack of gifts which he proceeded to distribute to everyone present along with an original verse for each. Delicious Christmas refreshments were served by Mrs. Hill and her assistant

Goats Also on the Domestic Scene

Practically every family in Bible times owned at least one goat. A family could get almost their whole livelihood from the products of one goat. From goat hair, tent and garment cloth, curtains and pillows were made (1 Samuel 19:13). Water bags, a vital necessity in these desert areas, were made of goat skin. Food products included milk, cheese and meat. Even the horns of the bearded goats were used.

Kissing Under Mistletoe

The word "mistletoe" derives from the Anglo-Saxon word "mistletein." It is a parasitic plant which grows on evergreen trees, with small yellowish-green leaves, whitish flowers and waxy white, poisonous berries.

Under a sprig of mistletoe men are by custom privileged to kiss any woman standing under it. The man is supposed to first remove one of the berries and present it to the woman. When all the berries are gone, the kissing game is over. It is thought this custom comes from early pagan marriage rites.

Mistletoe was also used by the Druids in ancient Britain and they performed elaborate ceremonies around it at the winter solstice. Because of these pagan associations, it is seldom used in church decorations.

Biblical Group of Domestic Animals Present at the Stable in Bethlehem

Scientists have established that domestication of animals first began in the Holy Land several thousand years before the birth of Christ.

The ox, ass, camel and sheep are known as the biblical quartet of animals, as mentioned throughout the Old and New Testaments. All of these were probably present in the stable when Christ was born.

Oxen, when mentioned in the Bible, might refer to cattle, bulls, cows, heifers or calves, all of which belong to the Bovidae family.

The bullock was the young ox; bulls were male cattle; heifers were young female cows; the ox was a castrated male bovine.

The ox, whose name is synonymous with physical strength, probably originated in Asia and appears to have been the first domesticated animal owned by families. The oxen were used for heavy farm work. Even the poorest family owned at least one ox.

The word "cattle" originally meant "possessions" in Hebrew and included flocks of sheep, goats and other herded animals.

(2) The Egyptian long-tailed sheep are related to the ancient breed found in the Urartian mountains, long considered the boundary line which separates Asia from Europe.

(3) The large, broad-tailed, curly-horned, creamy, deep-wooled sheep, that appear in so many biblical illustrations, came from Kurdistan at the head of the Tigris-Euphrates valley, which was the cradle of biblical civilization.

Wild grapes, wild wheat, wild asses and wild sheep grow in these Mesopotamian highlands today. People can

The purity, meekness and loyalty of the sheep for its shepherd inspired writers to refer to Jesus as "The Lamb of God."

The shepherds found compensation for their loneliness in this loyal love from their sheep and in the peace and beauty of the pastoral surroundings, whose revolving seasons they knew intimately, "and in the music of their homemade pipes, by which they sometimes trained their frisky goats to dance."

The nimble little goats of Bible times belonged to the Caprinae section of the large bovidae family which included oxen, antelopes, sheep and goats. Goats and sheep are closely related but the male goat is bearded.

ed, while the ram is not. A goat's horns differ from a ram's, and his odor is stronger.

Frigid goats were compared to wicked people, and obedient sheep to gentle folk. From this we get Christ's parable of the final distinction between good and evil: "He shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats." Matthew 25:32

People would choose a goat from the flock by drawing lots, then turn it loose in the wilderness to die, because they believed the condemned ones simplest and easiest. On the sins and misdeeds of the goat and its death would redeem them. This goat was called a "scapegoat."

How Santa Claus Became An American Christmas Tradition

The tradition that Santa Claus is the giver of Christmas presents comes to us from the fourth century man legend of St. Nicholas. Santa Claus is a German corruption of the name. When St. Nicholas learned of three young women who were unable to attract suitors because the father was too poor to provide them with a dowry, he filled three bags with gold one night and threw them into the windows of the rooms of the young women. Soon after, we were all happily married. Unexpected gifts were thereafter attributed to St. Nicholas.

The myth that Santa Claus descends the chimney to fill the stockings comes from the Norsemen. Their legend tells us that at the winter solstice the goddess Hertha appeared in their fireplaces and brought with her happiness and good fortune.

Dr. Clement Clarke Moore, a professor in the General Theological Seminary in New York, put the myth in the form of a poem, "The Visit of St. Nicholas." He invented the sleigh and the reindeer and his description of St. Nicholas was suggested by the appearance of a German man-of-all-work in his employ. The sleigh bells were suggested by the bells on the bridle of his own horse. He wrote the poem for his children in 1822 and read it to them on Christmas Eve of that year. This poem has become the foundation of our own rich American tradition about Santa Claus.

"Feast of Lights" in Merrie Old England

Over 1400 years ago, the Council of Tours decreed that the celebration of Christmas should continue on for twelve days through Epiphany, which falls on January 6th. This day is also known as "The Feast of Lights," is still observed by many churches.

It became customary, through the centuries, for the reigning King of England to open to Twelfth Night revels by throwing dice. In the 17th century, Charles II played for high stakes, winning 150 pounds one year and losing 100 pounds the next both on the same sums for that period.

Activities included choosing a King and Queen of the feast. Slices of a plum cake containing a bean and a pea were served and the man who got the bean and the woman who got the pea were crowned King and Queen. With toasts to the royal pair, the party got into full swing. Revels wound up with final kisses under the mistletoe. Before sunrise, all the Christmas games had to be taken down because of the prevailing superstition that a goblin would appear for each leaf that was not removed in time.

The Legend of Christmas Tinsel

According to an old legend, a poor peasant woman, with many children, decorated a Christmas tree with such humble trimmings as she was able to gather, mostly berries and twigs and such odds and ends as she had managed to save up during the year. She labored far into the night trying to make her tree as beautiful as she could.

While she was asleep, spiders had crawled from branch to branch trailing their lacy webs behind them. To reward the woman for her devotion, The Christ Child blessed the tree and all the spider webs were turned into gleaming silver.

Merrily, we chime in with Santa to send greetings and thanks to our loyal friends.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS AND GIFTS SHOULD BE CHECKED SAYS HYDRO

While there is some curtailment to the amount of outside Christmas lighting displays this season because of the energy crunch, Ontario Hydro's electrical inspection department issues its annual warning to check closely all such lights and to keep a sharp lookout for electrical appliances available as gifts.

"There is no question that the market is flooded this year, as is usual at Christmas, with shoddy, sub-standard, and potentially dangerous lights and other appliances," a Hydro spokesman warned.

He said these appliances are sold as "bargains" throughout the year, but are specially noticeable in the period before the annual buying spree.

One of the most common complaints has to do with "mini" hair dryers. Some of these are sub-standard and definitely dangerous. A quick check can tell whether they carry the CSA label, indicating the appliance has the approval of the Canadian Standards Association. Many don't.

"Some of these have turned up at Christmas parties for children where the favors and prizes are all handled by an entrepreneur who caters to the whole party. We had a recent case where one of these faulty dryers caused burns to the hands of one of the children."

Another offender this year is the off-shore manufacturer who sold thousands of "top of the tree" light clusters across Canada. The tiny plug-in lights are unsafe and could easily cause shocks or tree fires. Some bear the CSA label without having been approved by the standards association.

Since Ontario Hydro electrical inspectors have the authority to order withdrawal or to lay charges a number of suppliers are being prosecuted in court this week, the spokesman said. He said:

"besides these prosecutions it is also against the law for a firm to advertise electrical equipment or supplies which haven't received CSA approval."

Reminders concerning Christmas tree and house lighting for the festive season are again repeated.

"One of the great dangers, especially this year when lighting is being cut back due to the energy crisis, is that some householders will try to get one more year out of the lights and displays they have on hand. Some of these Christmas fixtures are old and worn out. Wires are often bare or perhaps indoor lighting is used out of doors. This can be false economy with dangerous possibilities."

"Loading two or three sets of lights on one plug is another potentially dangerous habit. Don't do it."

A common danger exists when a light socket has been left empty after the removal of a burned out or broken bulb. The empty socket may invite an inquisitive child to put a finger in the socket and get the inevitable shock.

Metallic reflectors can become "live" when they contact an empty socket or a bare wire.

"If you have an old set of lights, indoor or outdoor, check it very carefully before deciding to use it one more time," an electrical inspector said. "Splicing or taping wiring may not always lead to savings."

One more reminder: "Turn off Christmas lights as well as tree lights before going to bed, just in case. Santa will always be able to find his own way."

O.P.P. REPORT

During the week of December 7th to 14th, 1973, 12 motor vehicle accidents have been reported to this office. Only one of these accidents resulted in personal injury with one female taken to Belleville General Hospital. Total estimate of damages from all accidents was $7,475.00.

Two thefts were reported during the week. Two break-in and thefts were reported: one in Marmora Township and the other in Hungerford Township.

One disturbance was reported in Madoc Village and two in the village of Marmora. Two reports of wilful damage were received.

One Madoc area man has been charged with impaired driving.

Three male persons have been charged with "Having Liquor in a place other than a residence". One male person has been charged with intoxication in a public place.

On December 10th, 1973, a barn fire was reported to this office. The barn located in Marmora Township was completely demolished by fire along with 34 head of cattle, 20 pigs, and approx. 70 hens. This fire is now under investigation by the fire marshal's office, Belleville.

Approximately 20 other general occurrences were reported, some of which involved the following: Suspicious vehicle, vehicle obstructing traffic, found property, lost property, lost licence plates, and fraud.
